

Dedicated to

MAJ. GEN. JNO. A. LOGAN

by a Member of his Staff,

MUSIC arranged by Professor B. A. WHAPLES.

ST. LOUIS,

Published by Endres & Compton, 52 Fourth St.

LITH OF MAJOR & MIA-D, 409 BROADWAY, N. YORK.

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1847 by Jacob Endres, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the Eastern District of Mo.

VICKSBURG, COLE SAUNDERS & CO

MEMPHIS, BLELOCK & CO

THE LIBRARY
BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY
PROVO, UTAH

THE BONNY FREE FLAG.

3

Dedicated to Maj:Gen: John A. Logan

Written by Maj. W. C. Carroll.

Arranged by
B. A. Whaples.

PIANO.

The war-cry is up and our na-tion re-sounds, And our arms are all shi-ning and bright. Right bold are the foes that en - cir - cled a-round The temple of our lib-er-ties' light, But there's vir - tue and faith in the 251-4

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1864 by Jacob Endres in the Clerk's office of the District Court of the Eastern district of M^y.

land of the free, While the spirit of our fa - thers re - main. The ritard tempo

bullet and sword, our last refuge shall be, Our lost States from rebellion to re-claim.

rit temp

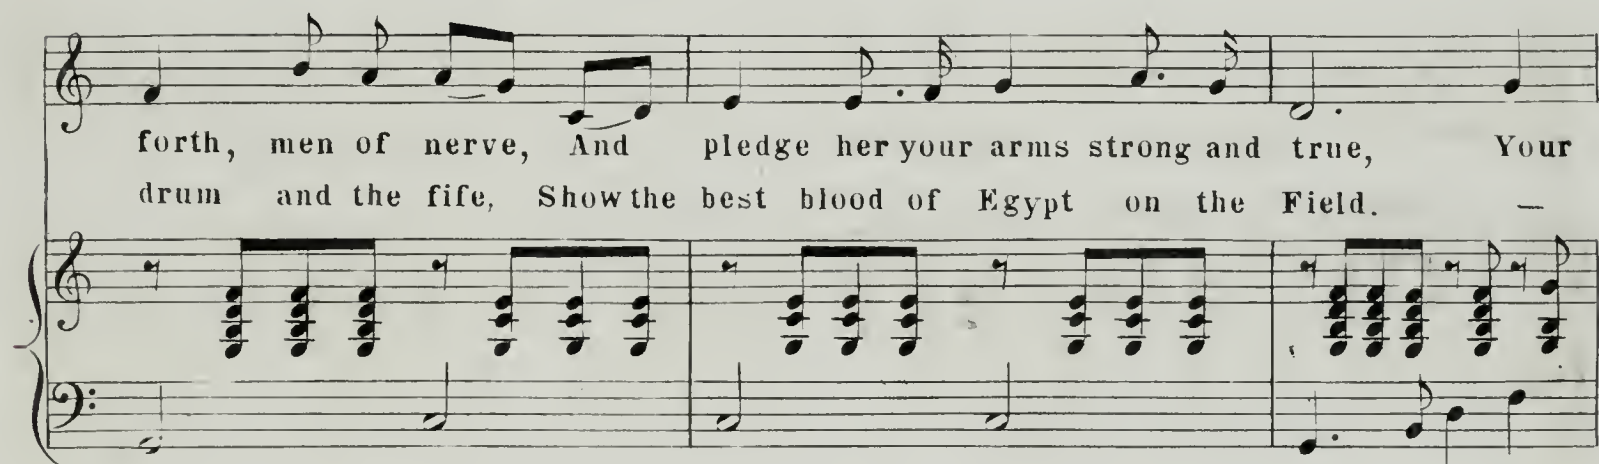

CHORUS.

Then a song and a cheer for our Bonny free flag, With its Stars and its Stripes floating high;

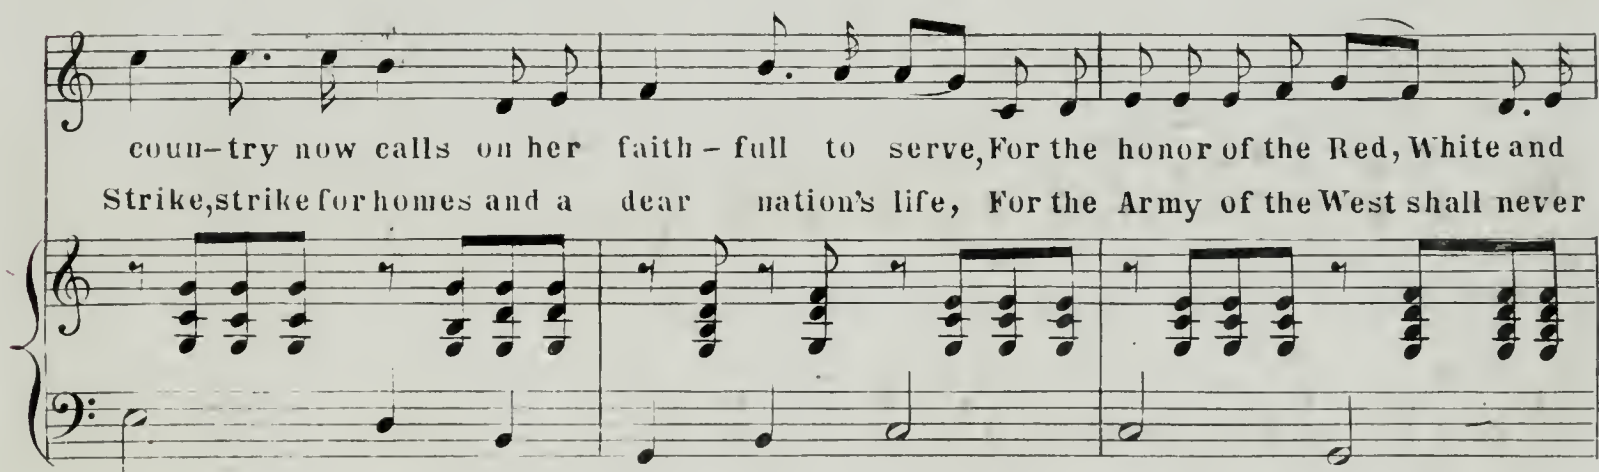

For its soldiers, its sailors, the Army and the Navy; For this Union will live or will die.

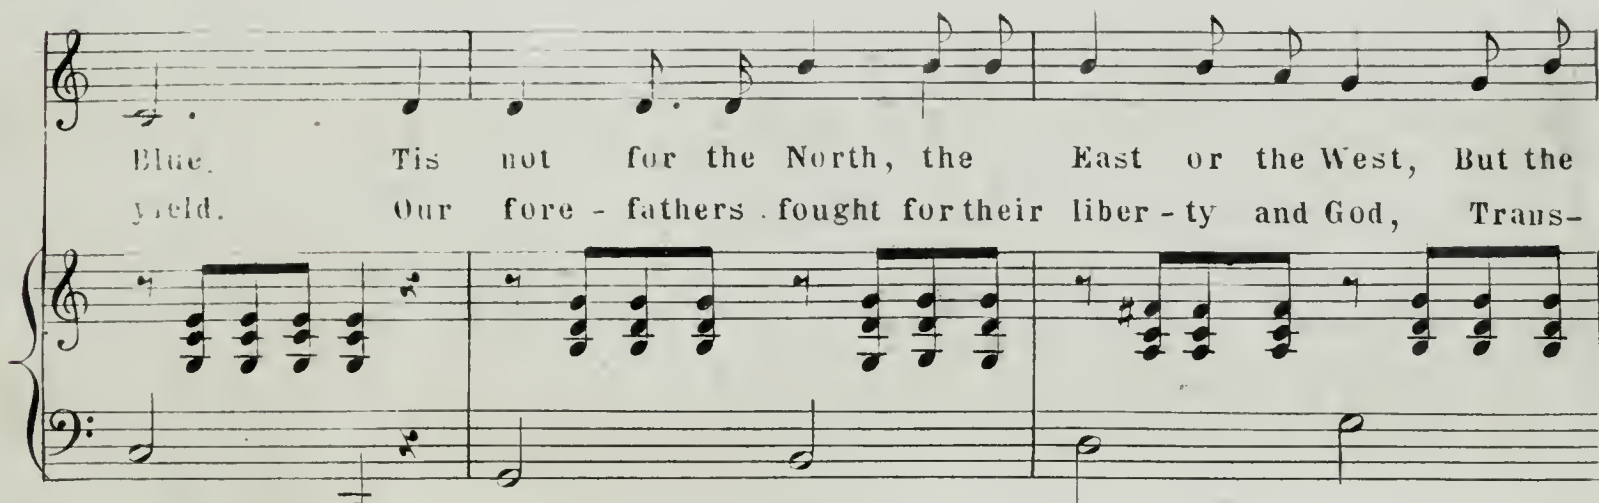

2. Come forth noble youths, come
3. March on, cried Logan, sound the forth, men of nerve, And pledge her your arms strong and true, Your drum and the fife, Show the best blood of Egypt on the Field.

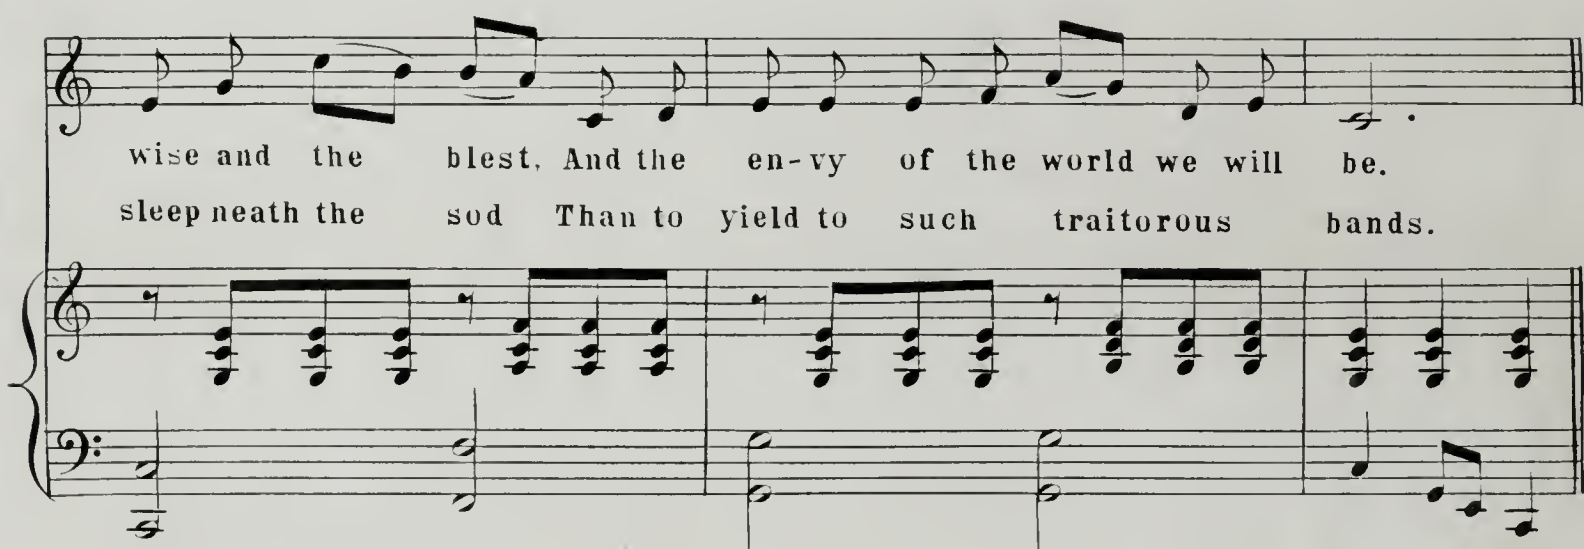

coun-try now calls on her faith - full to serve, For the honor of the Red, White and Strike, strike for homes and a dear nation's life, For the Army of the West shall never Blue. Tis not for the North, the East or the West, But the yield. Our fore - fathers fought for their liber - ty and God, Trans-

South shall be e - qual and free, So to - gether we'll live as the
- mit - ting these gems to our hands, So rally a - gain, better wise and the blest, And the en - vy of the world we will be.

sleep neath the sod Than to yield to such traitorous bands.

CHORUS.

Then a song and a cheer for our Bonny free flag, with its Stars and its Stripes floating high,

For its soldiers, its sailors, the Army and the Navy. For this Union will live or will die.